FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Milwaukee bus trip offered by Felician Village this spring

MANITOWOC, Wis. (February 10, 2020) - As part of its ongoing offerings to the community, Felician Village at Home is offering a day trip to Milwaukee on Wednesday, April 22, 2020, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The trip itinerary featuring deluxe coach transportation will include stops at:

- Grohmann Museum to experience the world's most comprehensive art collection dedicated to the evolution of man at work.
- Kegel's Inn, an authentic German Restaurant operated by the fourth generation of Kegel's. You will have a choice of one of six delicious meals that includes soup, bread and butter, luncheon entrée and a non-alcoholic beverage.
- Mitchell Park Domes to explore the April Showers Spring Bulb Show.
- Purple Door Ice Cream, featuring innovative flavors such as Brandy Old Fashioned, Nutella or Whiskey.

The cost of the trip is $89 per person for Felician Village at Home members or Felician Village residents and $95 per person for the general public.

Early registration is encouraged as there is limited availability on the bus. Registration forms can be found on the Felician Village Website, under Felician Village at Home or are available at our main entrance receptionist desk at 1635 S. 21st Street, Manitowoc. For additional information call (920) 684-7171, ext. 425 or email fvathome@felicianvillage.org

Felician Village at Home is a new membership program designed to support the health and well-being of older adults living in their own homes.
