FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lunch and Learn with Lisa at Felician Village

MANITOWOC, Wis. (July 10, 2018) - Lisa Voda, RN, Assisted Living Manager at Felician Village, will be hosting two lunch and learn events at The Court at Felician Village, 1903 Division Street, Manitowoc.

The first lunch and learn, The Social Benefits of Assisted Living, will be held Thursday, July 19 at 4:45 p.m. Lisa will discuss the difference between living at home versus community living, the rewards of independence and healthy eating and nutrition for older adults. Please register by July 16 to (920) 684-7171, ext. 329 or fvmarketing@felicianvillage.org.

On Tuesday, August 21 at 11:45 a.m. Lisa will discuss how to evaluate a senior living community. She will address common questions, such as, what is assisted living? And, what one should look for when choosing a facility? Please register by August 17 to (920) 684-7171, ext. 329 or fvmarketing@felicianvillage.org.

Both lunch and learn events include a light meal, short presentation and a tour of The Court, assisted living apartments.

The Court at Felician Village is the only state-certified Residential Care Apartment Complex (RCAC) in Manitowoc County, assuring residents of the highest quality of care in the area. The Court offers spacious 1- or 2- bedroom apartments, each with a kitchenette, living room, bedroom and fully handicap-accessible bathroom with walk-in shower. If daily living assistance is needed, a registered nurse conducts a professional assessment and designs a care plan that best suits each individual's requirements. Assistance with daily activities, including medication administration, dressing, bathing, grooming, eating, and mobility, can be provided.
