FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Felician Village announces winner of 2020 Felician Award for Excellence in Volunteer Service

MANITOWOC, Wis. (January 20, 2021) - Connie Thimmig, Director of Enrichment Services, Felician Village, named Harold Kimmel the 2020 recipient of the Felician Award for Excellence in Volunteer Service at Felician Village.

Part of Harold's nomination said, "We are blessed to have Harold live on the FV campus...Not only has he transported the residents throughout the day and evening on campus to Mass, doctor appointments, and activities, he regularly assisted during Mass on the weekends, collected alms giving, distributed Mass books, and assisted residents who needed extra help during and after Mass. He is the legs and arms for those who can no longer use theirs."

This award recognizes an individual whose volunteer actions have made a significant impact on the residents/operations of Felician Village. The recipient of this award exemplifies the core values of Felician Village by living out the healing ministry of Jesus and providing compassionate care that respects the dignity of each person served.
