FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Felician Village announces winner of 2019 Felician Award for Excellence in Volunteer Service

MANITOWOC, Wis. (May 2, 2019) - On Friday, April 12, Tim Lindloff, Volunteer Coordinator, Felician Village, named Shirley Horn as the 2019 recipient of the Felician Award for Excellence in Volunteer Service at Felician Village. The award was presented at the 2019 Volunteer Appreciation ceremony.

Part of Shirley's nomination said, "She lives the values of Felician Village by serving in the Village Cafe several times a week, she leads numerous activities and helps with major events, such as The Gardens Kentucky Derby and The Brewers Sausage Races."

This award recognizes an individual whose volunteer actions have made a significant impact on the residents/operations of Felician Village. The recipient of this award exemplifies the core values of Felician Village by living out the healing ministry of Jesus and providing compassionate care that respects the dignity of each person served.
