

Connie Thimmig, CDP, is a dementia care consultant for Felician Village. She obtained her Master of Science in Organizational Leadership & Change from Edgewood College and has over 25 years experience working primarily with seniors, especially those with Alzheimer's disease. She holds multiple certifications in dementia care and is an active volunteer for the Alzheimer's Association.